

- (1) Dynamic Checkpoint Rate Tuning receives profiling information from the applications and launches checkpoints when needed.
- (2) Reliam Resource Allocation Policy receives profiling information from the applications and allocates CPU quota accordingly.
- (3) Reliam Resource Allocation Policy receives information about HW components directly from sensors, or, if enabled, structured predictions from a reliability model, to make decisions during binding.